ORDER

Raja Vijayaraghavan V, J.

When the matter was taken up for consideration, the additional 33rd respondent appeared through counsel and filed a counter affidavit.

2. In the counter affidavit, it is stated that the said respondent is primarily engaged in the business of raincoats. Upon learning of a requirement for organic KumKum, he contacted KJK Traders, Mumbai, from whom he claims to have purchased approximately 3 tonnes of KumKum. The material so purchased was thereafter handed over to one Sri. P. U. Ashraf, who runs an establishment by the name "Puthenpurackal Coirmart" at Erumeli. According to the respondent, the KumKum purchased is manufactured using maize starch, food-grade colours, and natural rose aroma, and is not synthetic. He has also produced certain laboratory reports of Intertek, which, according to him, were furnished by KJK Traders, Mumbai. It is further submitted that more than one tonne of the KumKum remains stored in the godown of Puthenpurackal Coir Mart at Erumeli.

3. On examining the bills produced, we find that the KumKum purchased by the 33rd respondent from KJK Traders was supplied in 50 kg bags. The analysis report produced by the respondent, purportedly issued by Intertek, pertains only to small sealed packets of Green, Pink, Yellow, Orange, and Blue "Rang Barse Holi Colours". It does not appear to us that the said laboratory report has any connection with, or bears any relevance to, the wholesale sacks delivered to the 33rd respondent by KJK Traders. Even otherwise, insofar as the analysis report issued by the 34th respondent is concerned, the parameters tested relate exclusively to the category "Pollution and Environment [Waste Water (Effluents/Sewage)]", which is wholly irrelevant and inapplicable to the testing of KumKum intended for direct application on the human body.

4. From the photographs placed before us, it is evident that most of the vendors are selling KumKum kept openly in large vessels, sacks, and bags. Under Rule 34 of the Cosmetics Rules, 2020, every cosmetic must display, on both the inner and outer labels, the name and full address of the manufacturer, the list of ingredients, batch number, manufacturing date, expiry date, and a declaration of conformity with applicable BIS Standards. Evidence of compliance with IS:10999 is also mandatory. The sale of unlabelled and unpackaged KumKum is therefore in direct violation of the Legal Metrology (Packaged Commodities) Rules, 2011, the Cosmetics Rules, 2020, and BIS Standard IS:10999.

5. The learned counsel appearing for the Erumeli Grama Panchayat submitted that, apart from the indiscriminate sale of KumKum by various individuals, several pilgrims from outside the State are also carrying KumKum with them. The local authority shall make earnest efforts to sensitise and educate the pilgrims by authorising Health Inspectors and other officers to advise them against carrying synthetic KumKum and against washing it into the Valiyathodu and Manimala rivers.

6. Having considered the submissions advanced, we find that more than one tonne of KumKum is stored in the premises of Puthenpurackal Coir Mart, Mundakayam–Erumeli Road, Mundakayam, Erumeli, Kerala – 686509, owned by Sri. P. U. Ashraf.

7. We constitute a team comprising the Drugs Inspector, Zone-I, Kottayam; the Drugs Inspector, Zone-I, Pathanamthitta; and Deputy Controller (Flying Squad), Legal Metrology, Kottayam, to immediately inspect the premises of Puthenpurackal Coir Mart and to draw adequate samples of the KumKum stored therein in accordance with the prescribed procedure. The samples collected shall be forwarded to a recognised and accredited laboratory, and the analysis report shall be placed before this Court at the earliest.

8. There will be a direction to the competent authorities under the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and the Legal Metrology Department to ensure that unlabelled and unpackaged KumKum is not sold in violation of the Legal Metrology (Packaged Commodities) Rules, 2011, the Cosmetics Rules, 2020, and BIS Standard IS:10999.

9. The Environmental Engineer, Kerala State Pollution Control Board, Pathanamthitta (Respondent No. 37), shall conduct routine inspections and shall also place before this Court the analysis report obtained in respect of the samples collected pursuant to our earlier directions.

10. We suo motu implead Sri. P. U. Ashraf, Puthenpurackal Coir Mart, Mundakayam–Erumeli Road, Mundakayam, Erumeli, Kerala – 686509, as additional 38th respondent. Issue notice to the additional 38th respondent.
